Secretary Manning has almost recovered.

Let every Democrat stand up and fight for the ticket.

Gen. W. H. Wadsworth, Republican Congressman from the Ninth Kentucky District is not inclined to be a candidate for re-election.—Courier-Journal.

A very healthy inclination for Mr. Wadsworth.

The House has passed a Senate bill last week creating the nineteenth Judicial district of Kentucky composed of the counties of Estill, Powell, Lee, Clay, Perry, Letcher, Knott, Breathitt and Wolfe. Also, adding Magoffin county to the 18th Judicial district.

The Democratic County Ticket.

The Democratic party in Lawrence County has put out a very strong ticket, and its candidates are all well qualified for the offices which they desire to fill. Following is a brief review of the ticket.

JOHN THOMPSON,

Candidate for county Judge, is well known as a very generous hearted and popular man. His kind heartedness has proved destructive to his interests during his two terms as Sheriff, but there is no fear that the County will lose anything through him. The convention proved him to be a favorite with his party, and the election will show that he is a favorite with the people.

W. W. MARCUM,

The coming County Attorney, has filled that office with credit to himself already. As the Republicans have no candidate to oppose him it is probable that Mr. Marcum will have no trouble.

A. J. GARRED,

Aspirant for re-election as Circuit Court Clerk, during his past term of office has showed his excellent qualifications and the good use he can put himself to in the keeping of the records of the "big courts." It is not every one who can keep the records of a court up during a long session.

G. F. JOHNSON,

Candidate for County Clerk, has held the office before. They say he has had the office a long time, but if he holds it long enough to gain what he has lost by being sheriff once upon a time for this County it will be found that he has not become rich, or indeed made any great amount of money off the County.

ANDY SHANNON,

Candidate for Sheriff, will make an efficient officer. He did not scramble for a place on the ticket, but being called he is going to come.
He is very favorably known, and is deserving of the compliment which he seeks at the hands of the voters.

JIM VINSON,

Prospective Jailer, is our magnetic candidate, and if Democracy needed help, he and his friends would be able to give it. It is not probable that the party will be defeated at any point, but if some one wishes to find one weak spot in the ticket he had better seek elsewhere.

MILLARD F. CARTER,

Aspirant for Assessor was easily nominated and will be easily elected.
Out of the large number of candidates for Assessor it was manifest early in the campaign, that Carter would be the choice. Mr.
Carter is such a man as will make all endeavors to secure a sufficient and fair valuation of all property, and bring about a regular taxation such as can only be had from a true valuation of the property all over the county.

OUR COMMISSIONERS,

John Hays, Eli Fitch and Nelson Sparks are racers. Mr. Hays, though not very prominent in politics, is known all over the county, and to know him is to like him. He lives in George's Creek precinct. E. B. Fitch of Cherokee, is also well known and popular, and has many friends on the Republican side. Nelson Sparks lives on Big Blaine, in a country where its people are noted for their generosity, and he is no exception to the rule.
All these gentlemen are good financiers and no ticket will put out commissioners of greater ability.

F. W. WEIS,

Candidate for Coroner, so far has not heard the name of his opponent, and probably will not. The office is not so sweet a plum as to entice a great number of candidates, but the people should select well qualified men to fill even the least important offices. And a well qualified man is the Democratic candidate for Coroner.

Where She Wished to be Buried.

She was a remarkably sensible young lady who made the request of her friends that after her decease she should not be buried by the side of a brook, where babbling lovers would wake her from her dreams; nor in any grand cemetery, where sight-seers, conning over epitaphs, might distract her, but be laid away to take her last sleep under the counter of some merchant who did not advertise in the newspapers.

There, she said, was to be found peace surpassing all understanding —a depth of quiet slumber, on which neither the sound of the bonyon foot of youth nor the weary shuffle of old age would ever intrude.—Albany (Ga.) Times.

An exchange talks as follows of a newspaper borrower:—"Hereafter my dear neighbor, when you are in need of money, ask me for any sum and I will give it to you; when in need of food, come to my cupboard and help yourself; when your clothing wears out visit my wardrobe and take what you want; when you have company and need an extra bed, call and get ours and wife and I will sit up of night till your company leave. But darn your worthless hide, don't you ever come here after my paper any more. If you hold two or three cents so dear that you will not exchange it for a paper that is printed in the interest of all around you, I shall not encourage you in your miserly course by letting you dead-beat from me the brains and muscle of our town publisher. The cheapest thing on earth is a newspaper, and the littlest thing a newspaper borrower.

There is a good deal of mystery about the illness of ex-President Arthur, and his physician and family show no inclination to furnish information as to his true condition. That he is all the general public seems to know.—Courier-Journal.

Well, why not?

[Atlanta (Ga.) Times.]
It is charged that "buttrine" is made in a soap factory. After while we shall hear that boarding house beef is made in an iron foundry.

Mr. A. L. Jagoe brought to our office last week an egg that was a curiosity; it was elongated and crooked and was an egg within an egg, or one with two shells. A similar one was on exhibition at Morton's store recently.—Madisonville Times.

We are informed by people who know it to be a fact, that the morals of the community at Greenwood are greatly improved since the convicts have been employed there.
Before, the nights and Sundays were made hideous by drunken brawls in the illicit whiskey hells, and it is very unpleasant for respectable people, but the working of the convicts drove out the saloon keepers, and peace has reigned there ever since, until the saloonists raised this last riot.—Somerset Reporter.

However the strikes may end, some way must be found to stop the growth of the distrustful feeling between employers and employee. This distrust now amounts to an antagonism, and it goes without the saying that without loyalty of employee to employer and without confidence of employer in employee business cannot be transacted.
Any society or any individual that promotes the growth of this distrust or want of confidence injures both parties, but injures both parties, but injures employees more than employers.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Headache, Nausea, Dizziness, and Drow-ziness. They stimulate the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, to healthy action, assist digestion, and increase the appetite. They combine cathartic, diuretic, and tonic properties of the greatest value, are a purely vegetable compound, and may be taken with perfect safety, either by children or adults. E. L. Thomas, Framingham, Mass., writes: "For a number of years I was subject to violent Headaches, arising from a disordered condition of the stomach and bowels. About a year ago I commenced the use of Ayer's Pills, and have not had a headache since." W. P.
Hannah, Gormley P. O., York Co., Ont., writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for the last thirty years, and can safely say that I have never found their equal as a cathartic medicine. I am never without them in my house." C. D. Moore, Elgin, Ill., writes: "Indigestion, Headache, and Loss of Appetite, had so weakened and debilitated my system, that I was obliged to give up work. After being under the doctor's care for two weeks, without getting any relief, I began taking Ayer's Pills. My appetite and strength returned, and I was soon enabled to resume my work, in perfect health."
